PREFERRED BUILDER

ROME Construction Group

Keith Rodgers

A national award-winning builder, Keith Rodgers, works with his clients throughout each stage of the building process. As owner of ROME Construction, Keith believes that building a home is not only an important investment for the homeowner, but also the creation of a lifestyle. Keith says it best, "My passion is creating homes that represent my client's vision and helping them make their dreams for their home come true."

Keith Rodgers has been building and enhancing homes for over 20 years. He has served on the board of the Home Builders Association and was instrumental in bringing EarthCraft housing to Greenville.

Born and raised in Greenville, he has a love of the community and takes pride in being part of the growth of the beautiful Upstate area. His homes are unique and can be found in many prestigious residential communities such as The Cliffs Communities, Acadia, Thornblade, Kilgore, Kingsbridge and the Downtown/ Augusta Road Area.
